MRW CONSULTING GROUP OFFERS ADDITIONAL SERVICES TO DOMESTIC AND INTERNATIONAL CLIENTS

Ft. Lauderdale, Fla. – The MRW Consulting Group recently announced that it has expanded the list of services offered to its domestic and international clients to include assistance with Mergers and Acquisitions, Business Planning and Development, and Operational Efficiencies. The catalyst for the Fort Lauderdale-based forensic accounting firm to offer these valuable services is new partner, Manuel “Manny” Marrero.

“Manny’s 32 years of experience in business development, general management, and sales and marketing in domestic and international markets will be a great resource for our clients,” said partner José I. Marrero. “Our new menu of services will enhance and complement the existing services we offer and further establish MRW as a trusted resource for current and future MRW clients.”

The Fort Lauderdale-based MRW Consulting Group creates Strategies from Numbers by providing comprehensive forensic accounting, consulting and advisory services for law firms, law enforcement, government agencies, businesses and individuals. They specialize in a wide range of services including white collar crime litigation support, criminal and civil tax controversies, voluntary disclosure, forensic accounting, fraud investigations, anti-money laundering/bank secrecy act, asset tracing and forfeitures, due diligence, law enforcement training and review, business planning and development, mergers and acquisitions, and operational efficiencies.

The MRW Consulting Group’s domestic and international clients benefit from more than 100+ years of combined experience in law enforcement, forensic accounting, government service, and private sector advisory services including positions at a Top 100 Public Accounting Firm, IRS Criminal Investigations, the US Agency for International Development (USAID) as well as their experience serving clients as MRW Consulting.
